

You are a teenage girl and want to go to Germany? Apply now for the ABURY scholarship!

You are or know a teenage girl (14-17 years) who is ready to hone her leadership skills and would love to be part of a global network of changemakers?

Women remain underrepresented in leadership roles in public and corporate life in Morocco. This lack of female representation not only means that policies and products don't equally represent women's interests and needs, but also continues to fuel the belief that girls and women should not or cannot take on such roles. We need more Moroccan female rolemodels!

We believe that we can change this by equipping and fostering the next generation of globally-minded female leaders.

The ABURY Foundation (www.abury.org) is offering scholarships for two teenage girls from Morocco to come to Berlin for one week to attend the International Girls Summer Leadership Academy from July 7 – 14, 2024.

Our partner:

Girls Gearing Up (<https://www.girlsgearingup.org/>) is developing the next generation of globally-minded female leaders by equipping teen girls with the skills, confidence, networks & inspiration needed to create a more prosperous and equitable world.

What it is:

An intensive, week-long overnight camp where teen girls from around the world come together to increase their confidence, practice leadership skills, connect with powerful female role models, and make lifelong friendships across countries and cultures.

Criteria for participation are:

- 1.) Within the age group 13-17 and still attending secondary or highschool
- 2.) Sufficient English skills to follow a conversation and contribute
- 3.) Motivated to learn and interested in connecting with girls from all over the world.
- 4.) Has already an identity card (even better a passport)

Apply for a scholarship to attend!

Please send a motivation letter (max 1 page) and short video about yourself (1-2min) to girls@abury.org until the 15th of Febuary.

In the next step, you'll have an interview with a jury composed of representatives of the ABURY Foundation and GGU who can also answer any questions you may have. If selected for the final round, you'll be asked to submit a video in which you discuss an issue of importance for girls or women in your community or country.

Scholarships cover all expenses related to the Academy:

- Fees for Academy participation, including food, lodging and all Academy transportation in the week of July 7-14
- Transportation to and from the Academy in Berlin
- Flight to and from Germany from a major Moroccan airport
